

Sabrina Rubinstein – Chroma Key Script

You may have already heard of Aventura mall / as it's the fifth largest mall in the United States// This is not hard to believe / with its luxury stores, fine dining, and indoors farmer's market // You heard that right / a farmers market inside of a mall // The Aventura farmers market is open every Saturday and Sunday / and includes over 75 vendors // Here, you can find a variety of entrepreneurs showcasing their products/ ranging from handmade jewelries, baked goods, home décor and more // Need new accessories, look no further // You can support a small business by purchasing some unique handmade jewelry // If you're in the mood to try new food, you can also enjoy some cultural delicacies from all around the world, all in one spot // Looking for new home décor? // Pick up the perfect plant or assortment of flowers to bring some life to your home // And after a long day of shopping at the mall, don't forget to stop by /and try some of the many drinks available/ranging from smoothies/ to natural juices // These are just some of the few interesting items you can come across when visiting the Aventura farmers market // Take some time to stop by/ and explore the many things this diverse indoor market has to offer ///